Message from the Past President with news on our Board for 2020

President	Denise Savard will return for another 2 year term and continue to coordinate this club so capably.
Vice President	Cindy Welsh will return for another 2 yrs. We very much welcome her continued support.
Treasurer	Jane Williams was ratified into this role and we are very pleased to welcome her to the Board. Previously Denise Savard and Sue Wilkie split the Treasurer's job.
Exhibitions & Sales	Cindy Welsh will additionally work on this committee with Anne Martens and Renee Pahara.
Classes & Workshops	At our recent AGM, no one wanted to take on this role. Perhaps it's time for the club to move in a different direction. No workshops and classes will be scheduled this fall, but instead we plan to schedule a series of critiques, demos, skill sharing in small inter member workshops, and expanded opportunities for socials and members to interact. We welcome feedback from members about this new direction.
Recording Secretary & Corresponding Secretary	Laree Findlay will continue in this blended post, previously held by two individuals. This wonderful woman also acted in a third!!!! role as the Social Convener post for these past 2 years.
Social Convener	Lorraine Neal volunteered to become our provider of refreshments for all events after doing an excellent job as Classes and Workshops Board Chair for the past 2 years.
Publicity and Promotions	Cassandra Allred will continue in this post, which previously existed as 2 positions, now blended into one. She is working hard to open up new opportunities in the community for exhibitions. We are very grateful for her efforts.
Newsletter	Soba Kaluthota has returned to the board to write our very important communication with membership. We welcome her talent and help.
Membership	Wendy Aitkens was ratified in this position which she took on last fall and has handled very capably since then...also a welcome addition to the board.
Website	Ivan Bering, Cindy Welsh, and Sue Wilkie will continue to work together to maintain our new and improved website, https://www.lethbridgeartistsclub.com Ivan serves as contact for the club and answers all queries sent via info@lethbridgeartistsclub.com
Past President	Sue Wilkie continues as in this role. She also coordinates mural projects to install murals in dementia wards in various facilities in the City.

Iris Andronowich, who so successfully ran our Exhibitions and Sales portfolio for the past 2 years will not seek a further term, however she has agreed to be the Project Coordinator for the Christmas at CASA Sale, so her expertise will not be wasted.

Many, many thanks to Lorraine Neal and Iris Andronowich for their committed efforts on the board in the past 2 years and for the successes their efforts wrought!

And to Lynne Dewhirst who accomplished a big task to bring our books up to date, to amend our records with patience, and who continues to keep our books in sterling shape, we are so very grateful for your efforts.

Without the generous time and energy given by our board members, this fine club would not be such a successful and enduring organization. You probably noticed that board members are handling 2 jobs... that's asking a lot given that we have many capable members who could carry some of this load. So, if you value what this club provides you and believe that it must be nurtured and inspired by new ideas, then consider volunteering in any of the above committees. With your help we can learn more, sell more, exhibit more, and engage in more community activities. If you want to get involved in any of the committees, please contact me for further info.... swilkie02@shaw.ca or 403.328.1373
